

Homeland Security?

Four years have passed since that tragic day on September 11th, but have we even come close to securing our borders, an absolute requisite for true homeland security? George W. Bush mindlessly rants about “taking the battle to the enemy,” while he sacrifices our sons and daughters in a feeble attempt to secure the borders of Iraq. Meanwhile our own borders are left wide open for anyone to bring the battle to the United States.

According to the experts, just how vulnerable is our southern border to terrorist infiltration?

– Current intelligence “strongly suggests.... that Al Qaeda has considered using the south west border to infiltrate the United States. Several Al Qaeda leaders believe operatives can pay their way into the country through Mexico, and also believe illegal entry is more advantageous than legal entry for operational security reasons.”

➤ James M. Loy, former Deputy Homeland Security Secretary Admiral, testifying before Senate Select Committee, February 16, 2005

– Discussing home land security policies, “That investment will be undermined if we do not develop complementary strategies for controlling the illegal flow across our vast land borders...”

➤ Asa Hutchinson, former Undersecretary of Homeland Security for Border and Transportation Security, testifying before Senate Select Committee, May 17, 2005

– “We have from time to time had reports about Al Qaeda trying to use our southern border... they’ll do everything they can to cross the borders.”

➤ Condoleezza Rice, Secretary of State, while visiting Mexico, in interviews and public statements with reporters, March 2005

– “More recently, Abu Musab al-Zarqawi has reportedly instructed his followers to travel to Brazil with the eventual goal of entering the United States through Mexico to carry out terrorist attacks. Thus, it would appear that al Qaeda has already established a foothold in our own backyard.”

➤ The Miami Herald, July 11, 2005

– “Thousands of illegal aliens crossing into the United States each week, many of these aliens incidentally are not from Mexico, but they come from countries all over the world, usually flying into Mexico and then sneaking across the border on foot.”

➤ Senator Jon Kyl, (Republican, Arizona) Chairman of a Senate Judiciary Committee (Terrorism, Technology And Homeland Security, and Immigration, Border Security And Citizenship Subcommittees), June 7, 2005

– “As we have said before and we’ll say again, our immigration and border security system is badly broken and has suffered from years of neglect. This leaves our borders unprotected, threatens our national security, and makes a mockery of the rule of law.”

➤ Senator Jon Kyl, (Republican, Arizona) Chairman of a Senate Judiciary Committee (Terrorism, Technology And Homeland Security, and Immigration, Border Security And Citizenship Subcommittees), June 7, 2005

– (in May, 2005) “FBI Director Robert Mueller testified before Congress that people from countries that are centers of Al Qaeda activity are crossing into the United States through the porous Mexican border.”

➤ United Press International, UPI May 18, 2005

Demand that our troops are brought home and put on the Mexican border!

Demand Real Homeland Security!
